

Here is a list of hymns, songs and chants that are suitable for use in services on the subject of mental health and in the context of worship with people with mental illness. We have indicated some of the hymnbooks containing these hymns.

Hymns Old and New, Anglican edition (Latest editions contain most of the hymns below but may not have all of them. Other hymnbooks will contain some of these)

1996 Edition:

An upper room did our lord prepare

It's me o lord standing in the name of prayer

I the lord of sea and sky

Jesus Christ is waiting

1996, 2000 & subsequent editions:

A new Commandment I give unto you

Be Still for the presence

All the nations of the earth

Be thou my vision

Bread is blessed and broken

Cloth for the Cradle

Christ's is the world - a touching place

Colours of Day

Cry Freedom

Dance and Sing

Do not be afraid

For the fruits of his creation

Gather Around for the table is spread

Heaven shall not wait

When God almighty came to earth

Lord of the dance

Inspired by love and anger

Jesus took a piece of bread

Jubilate

Kum Ba yah

Let there be love

Lord of Hopefulness

Make me a channel

Now the green blade riseth

One more step along the world

O lord all the world belongs to you

We will lay our burden down

Will you come and follow me

Who would think

2000 & subsequent editions:

O Love that wilt not let me go

Take this moment time and space

When I needed a neighbour

Let us build a house where love can dwell (All are welcome)

Longing for light we wait in the darkness (Christ be our light)

Help us to help each other Lord

God you meet us
