 Amazing Love is a new book from Darton, Longman and Todd, produced by a group of distinguished academics led by Andrew Davison, Starbridge Lecturer in Theology and Natural Sciences at the University of Cambridge.

This high-impact but accessible theological volume is designed for those who want to explore the issues around sexuality with an open heart and mind, and to engage critically with a range of inclusive theological perspectives. Chapters include: Being Followers of Jesus, Being Human, Being Biblical, Being Part of the Story, Being in Love, Being Missional.

Will you help us distribute books the bishops, clergy and laypeople of General Synod in time to resource their thinking ahead of July's General Synod?

Would you like copies for yourself, your church or study group?

Along with our partners LGCM and Changing Attitude we want to send to send copies to all 483 Synod members, and some other observers, which will cost around £2415.

You can send a copy of the book to a Synod member and make a real difference ? it will cost just £5. You can make a donation here [1].

You may also purchase a copy of the book in the LGCM Shop [2] for yourself for £5.
